

Let's make it easy to get your Postal Supplies!!

The USPS.com website (<https://store.usps.com/store>) allows businesses to order free supplies through them.

Please notice that many supplies are not issued as a single item, but as a 'unit'. (For example, PS3811 are issued in packs of 10) So, a mailer can order 75 'units' of PS3811 for a total of 750 PS3811.

I have spoken with customer service and larger orders can be placed over the phone. This allows them to order whatever they might need and frees your supply necessities for the consumer and small business.

If they do have larger needs, please refer to:
